Service Level Agreement

In order to register for WSAB training events you need to sign up to Eventbrite and by accessing this service you agree to the Terms of Service as set out by Eventbrite. You need to ensure that you input your full details when booking a training course in order to be informed of any changes and receive post training resources.

Wigan Safeguarding Adults Board will:

- Email you with handouts after the training course, inform you of any changes which may arise and ensure any special requirements are met wherever possible.
- Provide you with up-to-date training in accordance with learning objectives and learning from Safeguarding Adult Reviews, Brief Learning Reviews, Audits and staff and service user feedback.
- Discrimination and/or oppressive behaviour or language will be sensitively challenged and where appropriate will be raised with managers.
- Listen to comments made through evaluations with a view to making changes to courses where appropriate and to measure the impact of training.
- Create a safe learning environment where confidentiality will be maintained unless this impacts on the welfare of a child or adult at risk.

We expect delegates to:

- If you cannot attend training, please cancel your place using the confirmation email you will have received (Eventbrite/MS Bookings). This will allow the place to be offered to other staff. If you cannot cancel your place using the above, please email wsab@wigan.gov.uk
- To keep to time and notify the board by emailing us, if you are going to be late.
- To ensure that mobile phones are placed on silent or switched off during training.
- To contribute and be considerate of others in the group.
- To be vigilant about the health and safety of others and comply with any evacuation procedures as appropriate.
- Complete evaluation forms as requested.

We expect line managers to:

- Assess their staff's learning and development needs.

- Discuss and agree to the delegates' application and attendance for relevant learning.
- Spend time with the staff member or volunteer after the course to facilitate learning into practice.
- Ensure that the staff member or volunteer is freed up from their day-to-day work to attend pre-arranged training.

Identifying Economic Abuse

As we are a commissioned service for Wigan Council, you must either live or work within the Wigan Borough in order to be eligible to attend any of our training and awareness sessions.

Economic abuse is a legally recognised form of domestic abuse and is defined in the Domestic Abuse Act. It often occurs in the context of intimate partner violence and involves the control of a partner or ex-partner's money and finances, as well as the things that money can buy.

Economic abuse can include exerting control over income, spending, bank accounts, bills and borrowing. It can also include controlling access to and use of things like transport and technology, which allow us to work and stay connected, as well as property and daily essentials like food and clothing. It can include destroying items and refusing to contribute to household costs.

Learn more about this form of abuse during our 90-minute training course.
